

SESSION OUTLINE

Name of event:	Peer Educators
Title of session:	Active citizenship
Facilitators delivering:	Maria-Alisa Dancu
Number of pax:	10	Time allocation:	60 min
Date of preparation:	8.08.2020	Date of delivery:	27.08.2020

Aim	To improve the understanding of the concept of active citizenship for 10 young Romanians through a one-hour workshop.
Objectives:	<ul> <li>To improve the participants' knowledge about how they can be actively involved in society, through discussions with other young people, until the end of the session.</li> <li>To inspire the participants to become more active in the society of which they are part, after the end of the session, by understanding the possibilities of involvement they have.</li> </ul>

Material	Amount	Details
ZOOM Premium	1	Needed for facilitating the workshop online.
Padlet	1	Needed as an open-space board for the participants to write on it.

Duration Eg. '20	Start at Eg. 12:15.	Description of Activity Include all steps in detail, examples you will use, theories you will introduce, references, methodologies, grouping methods, debriefing questions, etc.	Learning Goals What do you want participants to learn from this particular activity ?	Materials needed Give exact specifications.
۰ 5	19:05	Introduction to the workshop The facilitator briefly introduces the participants to the purpose of the workshop, what they will learn, and invites them to be active throughout the session.	To arouse the interest of the participants.	ZOOM

Link to following activity: How does the previous activity link to the next one? After a short introduction, the facilitator tells the get to know each other activity.		he participants that it's time for a
'5	19:10	Get to know each other – the facilitator introduces himself and says a few things about himself, after which he invites the participants to introduce themselves.	Getting to know each other	ZOOM
activit. How doe	o following y: so the previous link to the next	After the participants got to know each other, it's feel more comfortable with each other and warm		icebreaker to
'5	19:15	One participant says a color, and the others must bring to the room an object that has that color.	Warm up	ZOOM
Link to activit	o following y:	Now that the participants each other better and the time for discussing on the topic of this workshop.	ne energy level i	s higher, it is
ʻ10	19:20	Introduction of the concept of active citizenship: The participants are invited to write each of them what they understand by this concept, after which they invite those who want to explain. At the end, the facilitator makes a short summary of the discussions.	Setting a common ground on what everybody understands by being an active citizen.	ZOOM Padlet
Link to activit	o following y:	After introducing the concept of active citizenship into the subject.	o, the group will	go deeper
• 20	19:30	The following questions will be, in turn, written on the Padlet, and participants must click the like button if the answer is "yes" and dislike for "no". After all participants have voted, each of them is invited to explain why they voted yes or no. The questions are: Do you think it is important to be an active citizen? Why? Do you think that anyone can become an active citizen? Why? Do you consider yourself an active citizen? Why?	Participants learn more about active citizenship through self- reflection and through the answers that others give	ZOOM Padlet

		How do you think you could get more involved in the community you belong to?
Link to following activity:		After discussing the topic of this workshop in more detail, it is time to see what the conclusions of this session are.
ʻ10	19:50	Conclusions The facilitator encourages the participants to express their opinion about what was discussed, what they learned or what caught their attention. The order is random, but if the participants do not express their opinion, the facilitator will invite them in turn to do so.	Evaluation of learning.
Total min	Finish at
'60	20:00			