

Public debate “For critical thinking youth”

Workshop

TIME	MINS	TITLE	DESCRIPTION	MATERIALS
12:00	15'	Introduction of the Wake UP!	Presenting our organization and the Wake UP project	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Slides
12:15	60'	Debate “Youth and media literacy”	Research suggests that that young people spend 30-40 minutes a day reading and about seven to eight hours a day consuming media. Having this in media, it is important to teach young people how to critically analyze the news and information that the media serves us. In this part of the public debate, we discuss about the societal importance of media literacy and the need for critical thinking youth, who consumes media with a critical eye and doesn't become passive consumer of news and other data.
13:15	45'	Ask the media! Questions for the journalists!	In this part of the public debate, young people have the chance to learn more about the importance of media literacy skills, by asking questions to the representatives of the media.
14:00	15'	Discussion and finalization	Ask the participants about their experience with this public debate and encourage them to critically analyze the news that the media serves us.

TOTAL LENGTH: 2 hours 15 minutes

MATERIALS:

- Slides for the presentation of the Wake UP project

