

Workshop “Fake news”

Workshop

TIME	MINS	TITLE	DESCRIPTION	MATERIALS
10:00	15'	Introduction of the Wake UP!	Presenting our organization and the Wake UP project
10:15	45'	Discussion	This workshop starts with the discussion part, where participants are asked to discuss about two points: -Where do you usually get your news from? -Why it is important to decide if information you find is trustworthy?
11:00	45	Fake news/Types of fake news	In this part, participants learn more about fake news and the types of fake news.
11:45	30'	Activity	Think about a time in your life where you came across fake news, or a time when a cognitive bias influenced your thinking. What are some biases you have that might influence how you react to / interpret information? Has a piece of news ever challenged your thinking?
12:15	30'	Criteria for evaluating fake news	In this part, participants learn more about the criteria for evaluating fake news and how to spot them
12:45	45'	Activity	With your group, critically read/skim a news article using the worksheet. You can use the links on the guide to select an article or go to your preferred news source. Be prepared to share your thoughts!
13:30	30	Discussion and conclusion

TOTAL LENGTH: 4 HOURS

MATERIALS:

- Slides