

TIME	TITLE	DESCRIPTION	ADDITIONAL INFO
00:00 15'	Review of the situation in the media	In the introductory part, the facilitator will encourage young people to think about the time they spend on social networks, how they get information and how much and how they critically evaluate them.
00:15 10'	Thinking about your own role	Facilitator will then encourage a brief discussion of their own responsibility for social media behavior and, through a storm of ideas, summarize with participants 3 to 5 tips for responsible social media behavior.
00:25 5'	Division of topics	The facilitator announces that he will work in several groups according to pre-set topics (proposed topics: human rights, quality education, sustainable development, politics and youth)
00:30 40'	Creating online content in a group	In group work participants will develop a post for FB / IG / Tik Tok that will become an example of good practice, and all this following the instructions they devised together with the facilitator. In doing so, they should also find an adequate visual and / or article to which they refer, and on the occasion of which they write that post.
01:10 10'	Content presentation	They post the created content within a closed FB / IG group, and then read it and present their work to other groups.
01:20 10'	Conclusion	The facilitator brings the participants back to the questions from the beginning - how to create quality content, what they have to pay attention to and whether they can apply what they have learned in everyday life.
01:30

TOTAL LENGTH: 01:30

Think critically and create online content - block details

00:00
15'

Review of the situation in the media

In the introductory part, the facilitator will encourage young people to think about the time they spend on social networks, how they get information and how much and how they critically evaluate them.

00:15
10'

Thinking about your own role

Facilitator will then encourage a brief discussion of their own responsibility for social media behavior and, through a storm of ideas, summarize with participants 3 to 5 tips for responsible social media behavior.

00:25
5'

Division of topics

The facilitator announces that he will work in several groups according to pre-set topics (proposed topics: human rights, quality education, sustainable development, politics and youth)

00:30
40'

Creating online content in a group

In group work participants will develop a post for FB / IG / Tik Tok that will become an example of good practice, and all this following the instructions they devised together with the facilitator. In doing so, they should also find an adequate visual and / or article to which they refer, and on the occasion of which they write that post.

01:10
10'

Content presentation

They post the created content within a closed FB / IG group, and then read it and present their work to other groups.

01:20
10'

Conclusion

The facilitator brings the participants back to the questions from the beginning - how to create quality content, what they have to pay attention to and whether they can apply what they have learned in everyday life.
