

TIME	TITLE	DESCRIPTION	ADDITIONAL INFO
00:00 10'	Introduction - What is democracy?	In introduction facilitator asks participants what is democracy and how should we participate in it? If needed, he provides definition and models of participation.	for inexperienced facilitator we suggest reading a detailed text on democracy from Britannica: https://www.britannica.com/topic/democracy/The-value-of-democracy , and as models of participation we suggest: voting, referendums, protests, petitions, volunteering, civil disobedience, activism, engagement in a NGO, etc.
00:10 10'	Guided discussion - volunteering and democracy	How can we all volunteer to promote democracy? If needed, facilitator helps participants with associations.	associations - with volunteering activities that raise awareness of the importance of voting, through advocating for human rights, volunteering with refugees and other marginalized groups, encouraging and developing inclusive policies, etc.
00:20 20'	Good practice - local volunteers	For the central part, you will need several experienced volunteers to share their volunteering stories. Beforehand prepare them to emphasize the democratic culture of volunteering and/or choose your volunteers according to the relevance of their experience.
00:40 15'	Sharing impressions	In a circle, participants share their experience during the workshop, what impressed them most and are they more motivated to volunteer.
00:55 5'	15:25 – 15:30 Local volunteering opportunities	The facilitator shares concrete volunteer opportunities in local community.

01:00

TOTAL LENGTH: 01:00

Untitled session - block details

---

00:00 10' Introduction - What is democracy?

In introduction facilitator asks participants what is democracy and how should we participate in it? If needed, he provides definition and models of participation.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

for inexperienced facilitator we suggest reading a detailed text on democracy from Britannica:

<https://www.britannica.com/topic/democracy/The-value-of-democracy>, and as models of participation we suggest: voting, referendums, protests, petitions, volunteering, civil disobedience, activism, engagement in a NGO, etc.

---

00:10 10' Guided discussion - volunteering and democracy

How can we all volunteer to promote democracy? If needed, facilitator helps participants with associations.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

associations - with volunteering activities that raise awareness of the importance of voting, through advocating for human rights, volunteering with refugees and other marginalized groups, encouraging and developing inclusive policies, etc.

---

00:20 20' Good practice - local volunteers

For the central part, you will need several experienced volunteers to share their volunteering stories. Beforehand prepare them to emphasize the democratic culture of volunteering and/or choose your volunteers according to the relevance of their experience.

---

00:40 15' Sharing impressions

In a circle, participants share their experience during the workshop, what impressed them most and are they more motivated to volunteer.

---

00:55 5' 15:25 – 15:30 Local volunteering opportunities

The facilitator shares concrete volunteer opportunities in local community.

---