

Dialogue of activists (generations of activist)

TIME	TITLE	DESCRIPTION	ADDITIONAL INFO
00:00 15'	Getting to know each other	In the introduction, the facilitator explains the idea of the meeting - opening a dialogue / exchange of experiences / joint reflection / bringing the topic of activism on the public agenda... Then the attendees are invited to meet each other - by name, what do they do and what prompted them to activism / active citizenship?
00:15 25'	Moderated dialogue	In the central part, the facilitator moderates the dialogue among activists on the following issues: - Why are we talking about the topic of activism and peace in modern society? What does this topic mean to us, personally? - How do we act non-violently today, as activists? What is our personal contribution to this topic? - Has activism changed in the last 30 years? What difference do we recognize? What are the similarities? - Advice from experienced activists to the new generation? - Questions of the new generation to experienced activists?
00:40 12'	Space for questions	The facilitator invites everyone present to ask questions that interest them in the informal part.
00:52 8'	Thinking about future action	After the questions are exhausted, he invites those present to consider whether they have opportunities for joint action and announces the division of contacts.
01:00

TOTAL LENGTH: 01:00

Dialogue of activists (generations of activist) - block details

00:00
15'

Getting to know each other

In the introduction, the facilitator explains the idea of the meeting - opening a dialogue / exchange of experiences / joint reflection / bringing the topic of activism on the public agenda... Then the attendees are invited to meet each other - by name, what do they do and what prompted them to activism / active citizenship?

00:15
25'

Moderated dialogue

In the central part, the facilitator moderates the dialogue among activists on the following issues:

- Why are we talking about the topic of activism and peace in modern society? What does this topic mean to us, personally?
 - How do we act non-violently today, as activists? What is our personal contribution to this topic?
 - Has activism changed in the last 30 years? What difference do we recognize? What are the similarities?
 - Advice from experienced activists to the new generation?
 - Questions of the new generation to experienced activists?
-

00:40
12'

Space for questions

The facilitator invites everyone present to ask questions that interest them in the informal part.

00:52
8'

Thinking about future action

After the questions are exhausted, he invites those present to consider whether they have opportunities for joint action and announces the division of contacts.
