

Informed citizenship: Volunteer management and Social Economy

10.01.2021

Human resources management course at Social Economy – master
Babes Bolyai University Cluj-Napoca

Participants: 8 students + 1 teachers + 2 guests

PART 1 – 0,5 hour	18:00 – 18:30
--------------------------	----------------------

- * Welcoming the participants
- * Opening by the teacher: presenting the topic of the day: Volunteering in Romania and Discrimination
- * Introducing the guests- lecturers Nicoleta Chis-Racolta and Eugen Crai
- * Short presentation: Presenting Wake UP project and the topic of the day
- * Expectations of participants

PART 2 – 1,5 hour	18:30 – 20:00
--------------------------	----------------------

Informed citizenship – Info about volunteering in Romania

- o ACTORS of the volunteer movement (in Romania and Europe)
- o RESOURCES of the voluntary sector
- o PRINCIPLES of self-regulation of the voluntary sector

Voluntary sector resources available:

- ✓ The legal framework
- ✓ Traditional events in the field of volunteering
- ✓ Funding / support mechanisms
- ✓ Media coverage
- ✓ Information resources

Principles on which the volunteer sector is based (self-regulation):

- ✓ codes of conduct for actors involving volunteers
- ✓ standardized volunteer management process
- ✓ principles of good practice in working with volunteers
- ✓ instruments for monitoring and evaluation of volunteer activity
- ✓ diversity, reciprocity, recognition, empowerment

Working in 2 working groups: Volunteer management process - the content and order of the steps and connection between social economy and volunteer management.

Presentations in the plenary

Conclusions: Volunteer management and human resources management - advantages and challenges.

Evaluation of the workshop

Closure