

TIME	TITLE	DESCRIPTION	ADDITIONAL INFO
00:00 10'	Intro - Talk about personal experience	In the introduction, the facilitator invites all gathered to think about their identities and did they ever feel as if they did not belong. The participants share their experiences, moderated by the facilitator.
00:10 30'	Fighting hate speech - making activities	In the central part, the facilitator shares three cases of hate speech and a poster "How can you recognize Hate speech?". Cases of hate speech are - 1) a writing on the wall calling for the persecution of minorities; 2) a statement by a politician calling on the people to deal with migrants who "threaten the majority"; 3) football fans who insult a rival group on a national basis. Participants use posters to devise a way to react in specific cases and to send the opposite message
00:40 10'	Presentation of ideas	Participants present their solutions/activities to above mentioned problems.
00:50 10'	Explaining todays activity	The facilitator explains the plan of concrete action of Fighting hate speech (in this case removing hate speech from the walls and drawing graffiti with positive messages) and invites them to join the graffiti workshop. He explains that for the needs of this workshop, all permits have been obtained and that it is carried out with the consent of the City, which owns the area.
01:00 120'	Graffiti workshop	Graffiti artist covers hate speech with participants, teaching them basic techniques of painting walls with graffiti-spray
03:00

TOTAL LENGTH: 03:00

WakeUP! fighting hate speech - block details

00:00
10' Intro - Talk about personal experience

In the introduction, the facilitator invites all gathered to think about their identities and did they ever feel as if they did not belong. The participants share their experiences, moderated by the facilitator.

00:10
30' Fighting hate speech - making activities

In the central part, the facilitator shares three cases of hate speech and a poster "How can you recognize Hate speech?".

Cases of hate speech are -

- 1) a writing on the wall calling for the persecution of minorities;
- 2) a statement by a politician calling on the people to deal with migrants who "threaten the majority";
- 3) football fans who insult a rival group on a national basis.

Participants use posters to devise a way to react in specific cases and to send the opposite message

00:40
10' Presentation of ideas

Participants present their solutions/activities to above mentioned problems.

00:50
10' Explaining todays activity

The facilitator explains the plan of concrete action of Fighting hate speech (in this case removing hate speech from the walls and drawing graffiti with positive messages) and invites them to join the graffiti workshop. He explains that for the needs of this workshop, all permits have been obtained and that it is carried out with the consent of the City, which owns the area.

01:00
120' Graffiti workshop

Graffiti artist covers hate speech with participants, teaching them basic techniques of painting walls with graffiti-spray
