

Hand-out for participants

Discrimination Role-plays

Within this activity you will learn how to defend a victim of discrimination. Numerous different acts of discrimination will be analysed and the best solution methods will be discussed.

Required Material

- ▶ Computer
- ▶ Pens
- ▶ Paper

Your task:

Get ready for the activity!

STEP 1

In groups of 3 or 4, you will be given half an hour to research different act of discrimination and their solutions. You will need to choose three that you think you can act out in a role play.

Do it...

STEP 2

After selecting the situations that you are going to act, you will be given around 45 minutes to rehearse your three short role-plays. You will then act them to the rest of the group.

STEP 3

Whilst watching other groups act out their situations, notes should be taken with regards to the different act of discrimination and solution.

The finish...

STEP 4

A group discussion will be facilitated, with the main topic of discussion being the solutions that were portrayed. What was good about them and what was bad? Could you act in a tense situation?